1985 Homecoming Theme: 'Cereals'

1985 Homecoming began as usual with a week full of activities. The student body picked the top five girls: Emily Cooper, Tina McGill, Brenda Murphy, Jody Solgat, and Sandy Westoby. On Friday night one of those girls would be crowned queen.

Homecoming night finally arrived as things got started with the annual parade through town and back to the football field. The stands were packed as the floats worked their way past the crowd. The suspension was finally broken as Miss McLellan announced the Freshmen as winners for their float, the Sophomores as winners for individual spirit, and the Freshmen taking overall honors.

Finally the girls walked onto the field and Emily Cooper was crowned the 1985 Homecoming queen by last year's queen Kris Bailey. The night ended with the traditional dance in the school cafeteria.

The winning float, Knock 'em for a loop!, was entered by the Freshmen.

"This Is It" — For '86 Seniors

"This is It" — the Senior year for the 1986 graduates has finally arrived. Where are we all going to go? Some of us are off to college, others plan to work full time, and others will leave us for awhile to join the service.

We will all remember the day we first walked the halls of Reese High School, scared and nervous, not knowing exactly where to go. As the years went on we all grew to be friends, sharing so many good times with one another. The last four years have passed quickly, but not a moment will be forgotten by a member of the class of "1986".

1986 Concert Band Performs Well

Del Putnam seems to be the only person who has memorized his music.

The Concert Band has worked very hard this year. They performed a Christmas concert, and a spring concert for both the high school and the public. The money raised and collected will go toward a trip for next year.

They played at districts in Mayville on March 8th and received an overall rating of 1. They went on to state competition on April 26th, in Lansing. They also played for graduation ceremonies.

Yearbook Staff Got It Together

The Yearbook class once again sold M & M's and jewelry to help raise money to cut down the cost of yearbook expenses. Each individual section does layout sheets for each page and glues down the pictures that they have taken. Then they type a copy sheet for each page, ask for Mr. Matuzak's approval, and mail it to the company.

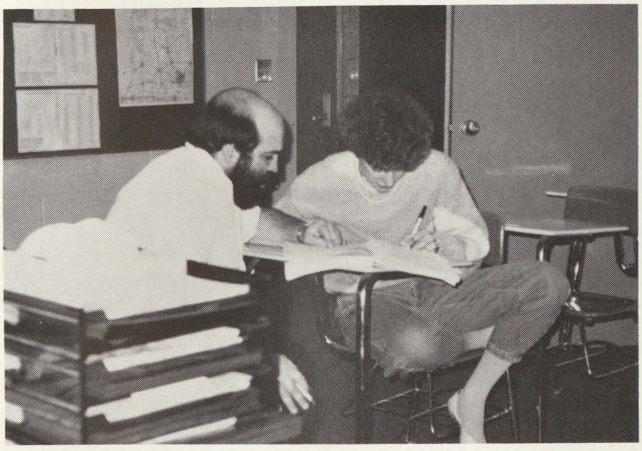
Journalism Enters 'Computer Age'

Tracy Schobert pretends that she knows what she's doing.

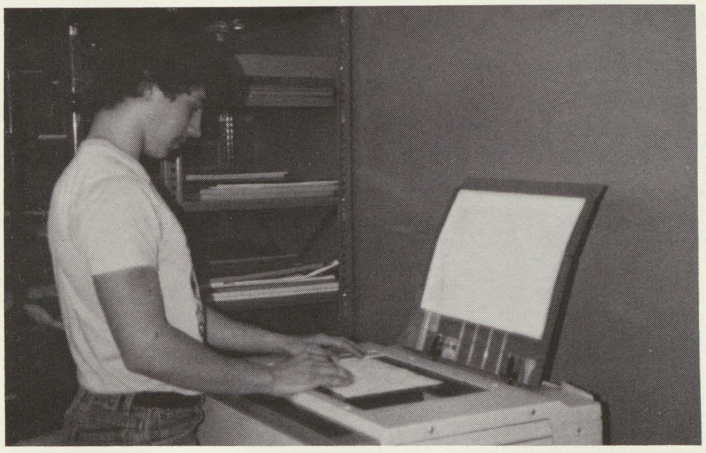
This year's Journalism class produced a paper each week throughout the year. They worked diligently on writing the nineteen eighty-six, Senior Edition. Serving as advisor again this year was Mr. Curley.

Editors this year included Kathy Ellison — Features; Shawn Edwards — News; Brenda Murphy — Sports; and Tracy Schobert — Daily Living.

This year the Journalism class received new books to help it create different and better articles. The front page of the "Rocket Review" was spiced up with the technological help of the Apple II computer. The Journalism class this year has done an outstanding job on its new creative articles and Senior Edition.



Susan Hecht receives help writing an article from Mr. Curley.



Kevin Trombley runs off copies of the "Rocket Review."

Reese Chapter Builds Program

The Reese Future Farmers of America were successful in a rebuilding year. They gained about fifteen new members and a lot of the old members returned. They also had two fund raisers: fruit and peanuts in the winter and seeds in the spring.

In the fall, Jeff Barrett, Steven Hill, Robert Rau, and Tim Weigold attended the 58th annual National Convention in Kansas City. Steve Hill and Dennis Ruppert attended the State Convention and tried out for the National Chorus at M.S.U.

Choir Sings With an "Up" Beat

The Choir class had a lot of fun learning new songs for Christmas, Spring concerts and Graduation. In early spring the Choir went to Lapeer East H.S. for competition and received a second division rating.

On May 17 they went on a canoe trip down the Rifle River. Everyone enjoyed themselves and most got wet.

Kellie Brechtelsbauer works hard learning music for the Christmas concert.

Students Earn Work Experience

The Co-op program again this year offered seniors the opportunity to gain experience in the working world. The students attended Reese High for three or four hours of the day and then went to their part time job. Their jobs ranged from the Reese IGA, McDonalds, to Felske Farms.

At the end of the school year, the Co-op students took their employers to The Greenskeeper Restaurant. Most of the employers attended, and all enjoyed the meal and the program.

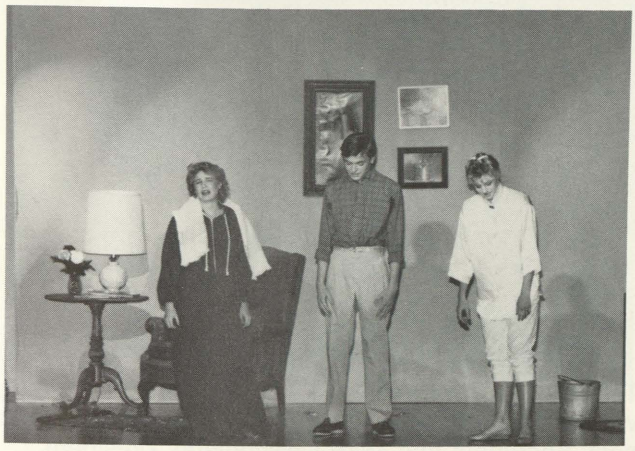
'Speech And Play' Returns To RHS



This year's speech and play class put on the play "Laffing Room Only". They worked on the play for almost two marking periods. Two casts performed alternately for the performances for the middle and elementary schools. It's great having a speech and play class again!

German, Pep Clubs Give Challenge

The German Club had a very busy year. They went to Central Michigan University for competition and did well. They also had fund raisers to help send members to Europe in June of 1987.

The Pep Club this year was busy making spirit signs for Football and Basketball games. They met the Art Room whenever they could.

The 1985-86 German Club officers were: Yee Hang, vice-president; Kathy Tilger, treasurer; Brenda Krompetz, Secretary; and Mike Fleischmann, president.

Rocket Ski Club Hits The Slopes

Keith Humpert flaunts his stuff.

This year turned out to be a great year for skiing, even though the ski club only went on one trip. Mr. Jordan decided to go to Caberfae, since this resort had the best group rates.

The students paid for their own expenses. Those who rented equipment paid ten dollars. Many students had their own equipment, and only had to pay five dollars for their lift ticket. No one came home with any broken bones, and everyone had a good time. Hopefully next year the students will be able to visit another ski lodge, and go on a few more trips.

Bob Stricker and Kathy Bernthal decide whether or not to do down the hill.

Ski Club members stop in the middle of the hill to pose for a snapshot.

Ski Club members include: First Row: R. Hirschman, K. Bernthal, L. Kintner, T. Mueller, S. Westoby, T. McGill, J. Solgat, J. Simmet, D. Lisee, and J. Mueller. Second Row: D. Grzemkowski, T. Teddy, C. Student Aides Support Faculty

High School aides take an hour out of each day to help the teachers with their heavy work loads. They correct papers, run off dittos, run errands, and take attendance among many other things. This enables the teachers to pay even closer attention to the students. The teachers greatly appreciate their help.

Kathy Ellison seems to think she can become a teacher in one year.

Dancers Do 'Jukebox Countdown'

This year's Reese High School Modern Dancers presented us with "Jukebox Countdown". There were two performances, one on Sunday April 13, 1986 and the other on Saturday, April 12. The girls put a lot of hard work and effort into this year's performance, and it sure did show!

During the week before the concert, the girls practiced every night from 5:30 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. Friday April, 11 was the dress rehearsel and the girls were looking good. It was well worth the time and effort. The concert was a big "hit"! Congratulations!

Reese Lifters Build Strength

The weightlifting club had a very good year. All the guys were working very hard at building up some muscles. Mr. Van Paris gave out lifting medals to everyone that could lift a certain amount of weight. They also lifted to stay in shape for football, track, golf, and tennis seasons.
